

Rocky Mountain Athletic Trainers' Association, Inc.
Atlanta, Ga
June 16, 2006

- 1) The Meeting was called to order at 4:30pm by Matt Webber, District 7 Director
- 2) RMATA Financial Report

NATA Report

- 1) NATA Hall of Fame in attendance:
 - a) Dale Mildenberger, Mike Nesbitt
- 2) Scott Linaker, Bill Lyons Most Distinguished Athletic Trainer
- 3) Foundation Scholarship Jeffrey Dietz, UNC - Roxanne Horwath, UNM – Heidi Neitzke, Metro State.
- 4) NATA Financial Report
 - a) See Attached
 - b) Other Expenses ($1,263,794) were explained as $400,000 carry over from previous year. CMS is another major portion of the other expenses.
 - c) Strategic Plan Update was explained and a summary is included in the attached report.
 - i) Vision: Add value to membership; foster enhanced membership engagement and professional passion; represent and protect interests of our members; continue improvement of clinical education
 - ii) Four Key Areas of Focus: Favorable State Regulation; Revenue for Athletic Training Services; Marketing and Public Relations; Job Development
 - iii) Strategic Direction:
 - (1) Increasing member personal satisfaction and professional stature. Action Areas: Fostering emerging leadership; communicating with members, refined education; providing strategies for life balance.
 - (2) Empowering members to utilize their skills, expertise and full scope of practice: maximize legislative influence; demonstrating the value of AT's; marketing our profession; focusing on the secondary schools; guaranteeing financial responsibility
 - d) CMS – Still no news
 - e) NATAPAC, fundraising is ongoing. Please consider a donation.
 - f) NATA meeting in 2007 is in Anaheim. Future meetings in the West are dependent upon western attendance.
 - g) Education Council
 - h) Items for the Good of the Order: Jack Aggers, passed away in the spring, Mr. Nesbitt brought up his contributions and asked for his
 - i) New representative to the Ethnic Diversity Committee.
 - j) Motion to adjourn. 5:05 pm.
 - k)